MUSIC THEORY STUDIOS
INITIATES MUSIC AND ART APPRECIATION CLASSES
The New Program will Kick off Monday, October 17, 2011

Virginia Beach, Va.--Music Theory Studios, a premiere recording studio dedicated to providing the community with an artistic outlet, will begin its music and art appreciation program, Soulful Techniques, on Monday, October 17, 2011, with the launching of classes that range from children's beginner to high school senior.

The classes will be held at Music Theory Studios, 181 London Bridge Road, and will be the start of an initiative to bring self-value, growth and personal success to students by allowing them to expand their imaginations and creativity. First day of classes will kick-off with a welcoming program with presentations by Jazzarae Mitchell, General Manager of Music Theory Studios, along with program teachers and staff members of Music Theory Studios.

Serving all of Hampton Roads, the Soulful Techniques music and art appreciation program is a collective series of classes and workshops. These full-length curriculum includes 24 different Art classes, Vocal and Piano lessons along with an Engineer Program and a DJ Academy.

For more information, please contact Jazzarae Mitchell at (757) 961-6202 or email at musictheorystudios@gmail.com.

Music Theory Studios is a fully functional premiere recording facility that strives to enrich the lives of people with the love and appreciation for music and arts. Soulful Techniques was founded in 2011, and the goal of its programs is to raise awareness about the importance of music and arts as part of each student's complete education.
